7. Community Police Report. Mayor Dillon reported that he had received a phone call regarding a vagrant living in one of the storage units off Farmington Road, but had them call our deputies.
8. Mayor's Report included the 4th of July meeting that was held last week. We are still checking on what can/cannot be done according to COVID mitigations. The Mayor received mixed messages about what other municipalities are doing. PPUATS – Peoria/Pekin Urbanized Area Transportation Study - will meet Thursday. On April 8th at 2 p.m. we will have a TIF Joint Review Meeting here at City Hall. It is to review what the TIF districts are doing, and anyone can attend. This is a meeting that is mandated by State Statute to be held yearly.
9. Public Comment: Alderperson Edmonds thanked everyone who attended the 4th of July Parade meeting. There were some good ideas that surfaced. He also thanked those who came to the "Meet the Candidates Night" that followed the 4th of July Parade meeting, held by the Residents' Association. The purpose of the TIF Joint Review Meeting was explained.
